Judgment—Page 4 of 7

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of:

5 years on Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment. All Counts to run concurrent with each other.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

	The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
	The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
\checkmark	The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
√	The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)

The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: KRISTOPHER DENEIL McNEW CASE NUMBER: 3:08CR30198-001-JPG

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall comply with all sexual offender registration requirements.

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installments of $20.00 per month or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision until paid in full. Any money seized by the Government of the defendant's shall be applied to the fine and costs.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the financial litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicted monies.

X The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer.

X Because the defendant possessed child pornography in his residence, the defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States probation Officers at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X While on supervised release, the defendant shall participate in an approved sexual offender treatment program, at his own expense, as directed by the probation officer. If deemed necessary, the defendant shall submit to an approved, sexual-predator evaluation. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements and conditions of the treatment program, including submission to polygraph and/or plethysmograph examination, at his own expense, to determine if he is in compliance with the conditions of his release. The defendant shall remain in the program until successfully completed, or until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court and/or probation officer.

X The defendant shall provide the probation office with information regarding his use of computer, to include but not limited to the following: identifying computer systems, internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices the defendant has access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices, at the defendant's expense. The defendant may be limited to possessing only one personal internet capable device, to facilitate the probation office's ability to effectively monitor his internet related activities. The defendant shall also permit random examinations of said computer systems, internet capable devices, and similar electronic devices, and related computer media and peripherals, such as disks, external hard drives or other data storage devices under his control.

X The defendant is prohibited from installing any hardware or software that would interfere with, impede, or prevent the monitoring of the use of his computer. The defendant shall not install any hardware or software on his personal computer without the advance permission of the Court or the probation officer. The defendant is further prohibited from possessing hardware or software that enables the use of encryption technology or steganography.

X The defendant shall advise the probation officer of all e-mail addresses, account user names, user identification information and passwords he use. The defendant shall consent to third-paprty disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that may be imposed upon him. The defendant shall warn other residents or occupants of his home that electronic devices will be subject to inspection and/or monitoring by the probation officer and/or authorized contractor.

X The defendant shall not use or access any file sharing software.
